

Register now!

KEYS TO CHARACTER

11TH ANNUAL

Character Education Conference

June 17-18, 2015

Alverno College – Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Save with early bird rates until 5/19/15!

Attention teachers, administrators, guidance counselors, social workers and coaches:

Register for this exciting annual conference. Join Wisconsin's brightest educators as they come together to learn how to inspire and empower students to become engaged and ethical citizens.

This 2-day conference features:

- Keynote presentations by national experts
- Opportunity to network with educators throughout the state
- Character education resource fair
- Breakout sessions by regional and local experts
- Recognition of award-winning schools in Wisconsin
- Graduate credit opportunity

Description of concurrent breakout sessions will be available on the Conference website in March.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

Keynote Michele Borba, Ed.D.

Dr. Michele Borba is an internationally recognized expert and author on children, teens, parenting, bullying and moral development. Her work aims to help strengthen children's character and resilience, build strong families, create compassionate and just school cultures, and reduce peer cruelty. Her practical, research-based advice is culled from a career of working with over one million parents and educators worldwide.

Keynote Philip Vincent, Ed.D.

Dr. Philip Fitch Vincent is Director of Character Development Group and partner with Multi-Dimensional Education, Inc. He brings many years of experience as an educator and administrator to his consulting, writing, grant project management, presentations and workshops. Over the last 20 years he has been working with schools throughout North America in an effort to impact the character development of all stakeholders. Phil is the author, coauthor or editor of nearly 30 books and numerous journal articles.

SPONSORED BY:

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH:

alverno.edu/characterconference